Tuesday:

Precious Hubby, dear, —

Have just received your 2 letters of ~~Tuesday~~ day and Sunday. They are wonderful hunky, lark. Am happy you got in the Masonic lodge — as I am sure you did. Well, dear, all that worry and fretting over nothing. Am positive you will make it and handy. I am very, very happy about it. You did wise by getting those books, — they will soon pay you back. I do hope, lark, that they will bring you in heaps of money. If you only get that Nolany Republic ship, that will help just as there the summer months — and we will be very economical at first. Really your expenses must be large — but when I come down things will be different.

I sure was sorry to hear about the Lugaar being black balled. How about Winters? It is too bad, but perhaps as he was not offered all notified, there may still be some mistake about it. I hope so, anyway. — But sure do hope it is true that you passed. There isn't a doubt in my mind now but that you will make the 3rd degree without much trouble.

Evidently you forgot to tell me about that claim for 19 yrs and that was probably what you intended to write in the big letter together with the corporation case. That corporation case was dandy, hope you get many more like them. 75 in 15 minutes is swell. A few of those a week would be so bad, eh? Am so happy lark to hear that cases are still coming in — and precious hope they will continue to.

As to our being happy — oh lark! — if only the time would come! I am sure you will always be good ~~kind~~ and considerate to me and that is all I need to make me happy when I am with you. And dear, if I am kept happy, you can rest assured that I shall in everyway take care of your happiness. The only thing is that 1 weeks have to slip by.

Lark, do you know who has a little baby girl? A. J. Wenitery! Evidently Dunstan he has a baby c[illegible]

Sunday. Very, very wonderful Party, Jack. [illegible]

I sure was sorry to hear about the Lugaar being black balled. How about Winstein? It is too bad, but perhaps as he was not offered all notified, there may still be some mistake about it. I hope so, anyway. But sure do hope it is true that you passed. There isn't a doubt in my mind but that you will make Jack, do you know who has a little baby girl? A. J.

Wenitzy! Evidently I was told he has a Paige car — a beauty,
I understand.

My foot, Jack, as you know is alright, now. Feel extremely tired but otherwise alright. Take good care of yourself and write to my mother just as soon as I get a chance.

All my love, hugs & kisses to you, precious, and don't stop loving me.

Your loving wife
Francis.
